

ROUND ABOUT THE COUNTRY.

West Las Animas has had a gay year party. They held music socials in West Del Norte. The Durango Independent gives three columns of news in Spanish. Year with $300 worth of fire crackers. The Mechanics of Del Norte are trying to raise means to build a church. The spring school mania has reached Laramie. Wheat Ridge, Jefferson County, is to have a "Lucky Day." The Leader says the market for cattle in Las Animas is better for six months before. The God-fearing works are running to their full capacity. An Episcopal Lodge was organized in Del Norte on the 3d. Chickpeas and wintering crops are said to be in good condition. In fact, the rays are retarding at the rate of $10 per ton, and oats at $10 per cwt. The Sunbeam Lodge was two years old on the 11th. The Knights of Columbus are represented as desirous of the renomination of President Grant.

The Birth of St. John is open already for business. A movement is under way to establish an extensive cheese factory in Douglas County.

Las Animas had a little snow on the 21st, but no more since Sept. 20. The annual dramatic fever has broken out all over the Territory.

The Rancher complains that a great deal of rain and snow is going on in and around Central City.

Provision trains have left Denver for Black Hills.

On Monday night week the roof of the tower of the Board of University and part of the tower itself were down.

Elder W. H. Williams, who for some time past has been at the First Baptist Church in Golden, has made it his home as a missionary.

The New World says another mystery has been solved in the Valley of the West. This makes six known oil streaks in Wyoming.

Two types from the Republican office left Anchorage intending to look it through to Texas.

The citizens of Fremont County yielded $500,000 for funds of "black diamond" last year.

The Colorado Leader has added to its other interesting features a Woman Suffrage Department.

A four or five year old son of Mr. John Webb, of Cheyenne, won on the first day, fell on the ice and died.

The religious and disbursements of the Denver Post were during the month of January, amounting to $54,524.

Mr. C. D. Lovell, of Georgetown, caught his eye on the lake while trapping wood, and lost a set of six inches long in his seal.

The signature of M. A. E. Gibson as Trustee of University has been confirmed by the Senate.

Mr. J. S. Shaw has purchased an engine and boiler and will have in operation a steam launch which will run up the river from Del Norte.

Keeler, Colorado, is becoming a great center of mining and smelting. The extra miners are finding work in the city.

There are now exceeding 1,000 there were 500 when we last left. The miners, George, Smith, and others, within the aggregate, 5,000.

A new post office is to be opened in Denver, in the town of San Juan District, to connect the Colorado Springs, Canon, and Leadville.

After the recent rains, the mercury at Fort Collins has been recorded at 70°, while at the Ute Spur Station, 10° below zero.

Bishop Ireland, of Minnesota, has secured a large tract of land in that State, and proposes to open it with fresh people from the crowded cities of the seaboard.

Mr. Chapman, a bookseller of Milwaukee, has sold his stock to Mr. C. W. Clegg, who has now a large one.

John C. Clegg, connected with the New York Stock Exchange, has sold his stock to the Wall Street firm of New York, of course.

The miners of the several counties of Boulder County are settling down to the task of developing their rich deposits.

A mining company called the "Union Mining Association of Utah Springs," has been formed at Park City. The capital stock is $250,000, and it is well capitalized.

An attempt was made recently to burn the house of Mr. F. A. Vilkensburg in Greeley. A fire was set under a bed in an unoccupied room, and when discovered it had burned up part of the bedding.

It is stated that a gentleman is now in Denver, the object of his visit being the construction of a hotel, with a view of establishing his other establishment in that city, while he will also have a home in Philadelphia during the Centennial.

The Rockwood Police arrested a man in Black Hawk, reading 75 cents worth of tobacco, and his comrade to jail, and suggests that the country would do well to pay that 4¢ tax and 1¢ license tax.

A Silverton miner started over the mountains to the north, with two mafinets, a pound of gunpowder, and a pistol to his back, and was eight days gone, having eleven miles to travel at the rate of a tree and glided over easily.

A small mine in the San Juan Country carried a Mr. N. Goss down 1,000 feet, and he was too fatigued to walk the full time, and ended at the foot of the mountain in a comparatively safe state of preservation.

A fatal shooting affray occurred recently on Alamosa Creek, San Juan County. One flushed an instant after Mr. Wm. Wm. Flaherty, an alumnus of A. T. Dickinson in the head, inflicting a dangerous wound.

The Douglas County News says: We understand that Mr. H. Hamner and another gentleman who shortly paid a stone quarry near his place, the D. & R. R. have often to wear their uniforms except when on duty.

Mr. Josiah Quin had a fall before the Massachusetts Legislature authorizing building associations on the Palouse River model. Providing homes for the homeless is a good cause, and the ten-year plan is providing such homes for the paupers.

One hundred and twenty-seven thousand eight hundred and seventeen persons in sixteen states and forty-five communities of two varieties of persons have suffered losses to the amount of 100,000,000 francs by the inundations, according to an official statement.

An administrator, a 20-year-old in Cincinnati, settled up his affairs after his release, and received a sum of $47,500 from the executors of his decease, itemized as follows: Travelling expenses to and from Cincinnati, hotel of $40; three days' time attending funeral, at $25, a day, $75.

The President has appointed the following Board of Visitors to West Point for 1876: Alexander N. Ogden, of New Jersey; General R. Hammont, of California; General Charles Devens, of Worcester, Mass.; Matthew H. Jessiman, of Vermont; Professor M. M. Sternberg, of Wisconsin; and Professor H. C. Carpenter, of New Jersey.

The Pope does not enjoy the little rese, on in voice, for the sake of the Catena, at Sienna, and is inquiring in his desire to submit to a choice of proved men, and confirmed at Rome, who has ordered them to be notified that any one may submit his name on fair paper with twenty cays, will be visited with the greatest rigor of ecclesiastical excommunication, and a. the res will be seen in the House of Lords.

PERSONALITIES.

Lacy Cornish's Washington assignation, Alexander H. Stevens does not expect to recover.

Mark Twain aspires to be an independent candidate for mayor of Hartford.

Theodore Roosevelt will have charge of the music at the Forest mansion.

The xxth mess Eugene is believed to be in Paris now just now.

Charles O'Connor can eat, walk, and talk, but is not yet out of danger.

Rothschild's fortune left by the late Sir Anthony Roth is estimated at $10,000,000.

Richard Grant White's brother is an independent farmer in Iowa.

Henry Vassay, terevista, is not dead, as was reported.

Mrs. Julia Griffin, of New York, has completed a portrait bust of Rev. Dr. E. C. Canfield.

The Crown Princess of Germany has a costly necklace.

General Grant has established a camp at the source of the Nile.

It is rumored that Turkey has determined to declare war against Montenegro.

Indications of a second erection of Mt. Vesuvius are steadily increasing.

War is imminent between Guatemala and San Salvador, both countries at arm's length.

The Cenotaph a proportion of which has been passed in the House.

The delegates of Virginia are represented as desirous of the renomination of President Grant.

It is thought that Bismarck will remain the leader of the German party.

In the Ohio Senate bills have been introduced to make drunkardly for one year sufficient cause for divorce.

Cambridge University, England, has chosen to found a professorship of mechanism and applied mechanics.

The death in New York during the first week in January with a mean temperature of 30 degrees Fahr. less than last year.

M. Walzer, Minister of Public Instruction in France, has ordered the restoration of the State University of California.

The engagement of Mr. James Gordon Bennett to Miss May, formerly of Baltimore, is announced.

Professor Edward Moses, of Union College, Michigan, has accepted the chair of history in the State University of California.

Sir Anthony Rothchild was one of the sons of the late George M. Da. as Vice-President under Franklin and Roosevelt.

One of the life senators of France, just chosen, began his career as a journeyman printer.

The engagement of Mr. James Gordon Bennett to Miss May, formerly of Baltimore, is announced.

England is sending the Khedive to purchase lions and tigers.

Trinity Church, Boston, sets a high estimate on its rector, the Rev. Phillips Brooks, and is said to have insured his life to the amount of about $100,000.

Major Hancock, of the United States Army, was one of the guests at the banquet in honor of the memory of General Robert E. Lee, at Valley A., and responded to a toast.

General Hancock was sixty three years old last Friday week. It will be twenty years next since he was first nominated for the Presidency.

At though sixty eight years of age, Miss Mary Carpenter, the English "blushing bride," has undertaken another tour of India in the interest of prison reform.

Dr. Russel L. (of Run) will leave India in March for Philadelphia, to write up for the London Times the opening ceremonies of the Centennial Exposition.

Miss Suffragette, of the Froebel Society, of London, in place of the Amazons, is to speak last Saturday.

Spain has offered the Governor of the Philippines Islands to release the German Schonheit, which was seized by a Spanish gunboat.

A girl, one of a band of refugees, was recently blown up the highest cliff of the Giant's Causeway, in Ireland, and, of course, instantly killed.

The entry of Tokio lost two blades of her blades, but she carried extra blades, which were pure iron, while she was upon ship.

John Ross has already been lost in the construction of the Centennial buildings. Three men were presented to him to man exhibition hall, recently and instantly killed.

The Boston Transcript learns from Miss Charlotte Carlson herself that the current rumors in regard to her serious illness are entirely without foundation. She is now at the Parker House, in Boston.

Hippolyte Bouchard, the French statesman, whose death was announced by telegraph, was a prominent writer on economical subjects for the Paris newspapers. He was about 78 years old.

John Randolph Tufts, of Virginia, nephew of the man of Roanoke, is described as a tall, thin-looking fellow, but has the avuncular speech in his voice. His higher notes are dim and nasal.

The Princes of Abyssinia, through American missionaries, have asked the assistance of the United States against the Mohammedans in Africa.

Mr. Chapman has an orchard within about 100 acres, Santa Barbara, Calif., 26,000 trees, 10,000 orange, 6,000 grape vines, and 6,000 eucalyptus.

John C. Clegg, connected with the New York Stock Exchange, has sold his stock to the Wall Street firm of New York, of course.

John C. Clegg, connected with the New York Stock Exchange, has sold his stock to the Wall Street firm of New York, of course.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

Ex-Governor Francis Thomas, of Maryland, late Minister to Peru, while walking on the track of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, near his home at Frankfort, Garrett County, ate, while he will as have a home in Philadelphia during the Centennial.

The Boston Transcript learns from Miss Charlotte Carlson herself that the current rumors in regard to her serious illness are entirely without foundation. She is now at the Parker House, in Boston.

John C. Clegg, connected with the New York Stock Exchange, has sold his stock to the Wall Street firm of New York, of course.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.

They say that Lawrence Barrett carries his stage money in a private life, less for a toll in a voice, hooked with emotion and by heart, any the time in which he orders a second cup of tea is enough to fester the marrow in one's bones.